

A colorful graphic for an 'Open Day' event. At the top, the words 'Open Day' are written in a large, stylized font. Below the text, there are several cartoon children peeking over a white scroll that runs across the top. On the left, a boy with curly hair is visible. In the center, three children are smiling. On the right, a girl with pigtails is visible. Below the scroll, there are various school-related items: a ruler, a stack of books, a globe, and two pencils (one blue, one green). The number '5' is written in a large, red font on the right side. At the bottom, a boy in a blue shirt and shorts is walking towards the left, and a girl in a pink dress is walking towards the right. The word 'Benvenuti!' is written in a colorful, bubbly font in the center. The background is a light blue sky.
